

1 Make sure handle is placed all the way to the back of the opener ("down" position).

2 With your right hand, place neck of bottle as far up between clamps as possible. Squeeze clamps firmly with your left hand to hold bottle in place.

3 Using your right hand, rotate handle completely forward to remove cork.

4 To release cork, reposition handle to rear – the cork will drop into your hand!