Nahtlose Farbübergänge

Guy Tempier ist ein Perfektionist auf dem Gebiet der Airbrush-Technik. Mit erstaunlicher Präzision gelingt es ihm, nahtlos erscheinende Farbübergänge herzustellen. Dies lässt sich besonders gut an den hochpolierten Chromoberflächen der von ihm im Bild verarbeiteten Luxusautomobilen erkennen. Was Guy Tempiers Arbeiten darüber hinaus auszeichnet, das ist der Blick fürs Detail, der hier offensichtlich wird. Mit seiner ausgefeilten Technik gelingt es ihm, den Betrachterblick zu fokussieren. Durch diese Reise unter die Oberfläche erschließt sich eine neue Welt, in der viele verborgene Reize zu entdecken sind.
