Hardware and Parts

Step 1
Place cam pins (C) into holes shown above. Firmly tighten all cam pins.

Step 2
Place cam nuts (D) into holes on Parts T and U so that the arrow on the cam face is lined up with the opening.

Step 3
Once Parts T and U are attached to Parts Q and P, tighten cam nuts by turning clock-wise until they've locked into place.

Step 4

Place cam pins (C) into holes shown below. Firmly tighten both cam pins.

Step 5

Place cam nuts (D) into holes on side (P). Attach desk top (P) to drawer unit (R), then tighten cam nuts by turning until they've locked into place. Attach sides of desk top to lower frame using screw (A).

Step 6

Attach roll top sides (M and O) to desk top (P), using cam pins (C) and cam nuts (D).

Step 7

Attach top (K) to roll top sides (parts M and O) using screw (B).

Step 8

From the back of the unit, insert roll top slats (L) into grooves in the roll top sides. Make sure handle cutout (indentation) on the front-most slat ends up on the front of the desk.

Step 9

Insert storage compartment (V) from back of unit. Ensure the brackets on the sides of the storage compartment unit slip into the grooves on the roll top sides (M and O).

Step 10

Insert desk drawer (Y) from the front of the unit. From the back of the unit, screw drawer tipping bracket (X) to back of drawer (Y) using screws (B).

Step 11

Attach back panels W and S using screws (E). When completed, insert the pull-out tray (Z) in the front section and the small drawer (G) in the storage compartment.

Step 12

Insert the pull-out tray (Z) in the front section and the small drawer (G) in the storage compartment.

Roll Top Slat

If at any time the pull-down slats of the roll top desk stick in the grooves, or become hard to open and close, rub a small amount of hand soap (Ivory soap or similar) in the channels. Soap will not damage the wood and will ensure a smooth opening and closing of the roll top slats.
